

Science camp for 6th-8th graders!!! Coming in February...

MSA students get the real camp experience. Students work in cooperative learning groups, keeping field journals to record data they observe in the various habitats. The classes will include some of the following options:

- Coniferous field study
- Animal tracking
- Chaparral field study
- Nocturnal animals
- Pond analysis lab
- Trout study
- Basic survival skills
- Bird lab

Where: Forest Home Christian Camp located in the San Bernardino Mountains at an elevation of 5200 ft. (There should be snow!!!! Yeah!!!!)

When: Wednesday, February 24 through Friday, February 26, 2010

Cost: $210

Deposit: $50 due by November 30th to hold our reservation with balance paid by February 1st

General information: Other groups will be at the camp simultaneously, however, we will be in our own program. They will rotate groups to the different activities.
